

Chris Sullivan

Global Threads Local Ties

SIEBA CONFERENCE 25-26 JUNE 2024

Speaker Bio:

Business Development
Manager, The Springboard
Trust, Auckland

Topic -
Educational Leadership &
Strategic Planning

Chris is an experienced director, consultant, general manager and project manager and he has more than 15 years of experience working with public, private, and not-for-profit clients. His areas of expertise include learning design, change management, stakeholder and partner management in new and established teams and organisations. Chris has worked extensively in international education having worked in more than 30 countries, and has led significant local, regional, national, and international projects related to international education.

His interest lies primarily in education and the interface of strategy and practice; the use of data and evidence to inform change; and relationship management in complex multi-sector and multi-agency environments. Chris leads business development and special projects at Springboard Trust.

He currently serves on the board of the New Zealand Youth Mentoring Trust and Ako Mātātupu Teach First New Zealand.